

Sandon Reading Bulletin

'Every Second to be Valuable, Inspiring, Personalised.'

Welcome

Welcome everyone to Sandon's reading bulletin. We have had another fantastic term full of fun and wonderful reading opportunities.

In classes we explored a variety of engaging texts (fiction, non-fiction and poetry). Here are just a sample:

Apple- Journey inside the Human Body by Pixa Education

Cherry - Oliver's Vegetables by Vivian French

Willow - The Hungry Caterpillar by Eric Carle

Beech - Kitchen Disco by Clare Foges

Pine - We're Going on a Picnic by Pat Hutchins

Ash- My First Book of Haiku Poems by Esperanza Ramierz-Christensen

Hospitality & Horticulture - Cogheart by Peter Bunzl

As always, thank you for your continued support. Have a lovely half term break!

Events

Parent Visitors

This term we had some more parents and carers come into school and read with the pupils. Please get in touch with school if you would like to come in for a visit. We'd love to have you!

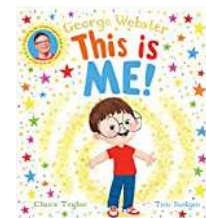

Coronation Celebration

We celebrated the King's coronation by learning about him and his life. We finished with a lovely coronation picnic in the sunshine. It was a fantastic day!

Diversity Project

This term we took part in a Diversity Project where we focused on understanding our selves and celebrating our uniqueness. We looked at the protected characteristics and how to promote equality and inclusion. We explored books that feature protected characteristics such as, 'This is Me!' by George Webster and 'Amazing Me, Amazing You' by Christine McGuinness. Pupils celebrated

RECOMMENDATIONS

- Phonics Family profile on Instagram is full of great, practical phonics ideas to try at home.
- 'The King's Runaway Crown' by Rosalind Spark. A fun picture book to share, with the message that everyone is nervous sometimes.
- 'The Goat and the Stoat and the Boat' by Em Lynas. A funny picture book written in clever rhyme and tongue twister text.
- 'Global' by Eoin Colfer. A graphic novel for confident readers about global issues.
